Descripton of accommodation

The new Leuhusen Collection is our latest and yet biggest project. It consists of four individually accessible rooms, each with its own bathroom (en-suite-bathroom) and design concept. On the corridor is the communal room with a fully equipped kitchen. The Leuhusen Collection is perfect suitable for groups (max. 8 persons) who enjoy their private space but explore Vienna together - ideal for bachelor parties, group travelers or students. There is also the possibility to book the rooms separately.

When elegant villas and embassies as well as mystical gingerbread houses overgrown with leaves line up on the border from Währing to Döbling and a special elegance runs through the streets, you are in Gersthof, near the Cottage Quarter in the 18th district.

The streets are one of the most popular paths for long walks, a picnic is best attached to it.

The nearby avenues also provide plenty of shade, which makes it wonderful to endure here even on particularly hot days, whereas snow and ice provide a unique calm and majestic melancholy.

You can easily reach the city centre in 17 minutes - public transport you find right outside the door.
