Descripton of accommodation

This well-laid-out apartment on the second floor is situated in the heart of Salzburg, making it an excellent choice for professionals, expats, or project workers looking for a proper home base during an extended stay.

With 50 m² of living space, the apartment comfortably accommodates up to three people. Two separate bedrooms provide the privacy needed whether you are staying alone, as a couple, or with a colleague. A shared bathroom completes the arrangement.

The private kitchen is fully equipped and includes a coffee machine for filter coffee — a great start to any working day. A private washing machine, bed linen, towels, and cleaning and sanitary supplies are all provided, so you can settle in immediately without any extra hassle. The balcony offers a welcome spot to unwind after a long day.

The central location in Salzburg keeps commuting times short and puts everyday essentials within easy reach. Please note that the building does not have a lift, which is worth keeping in mind when moving in.

Smoking is not permitted inside the apartment. Pets may be allowed upon request. Check-in and check-out take place within set time windows.
